SCHOOL IMPROVEMENTS

When we returned to school this fall we found that our school had some new improvements. First of all we noticed that the high school had been painted peach and bright green and the grade school had been painted blue green and cream.

As we climbed the stairs to enter the assembly we found that the assembly had new lights. When we lifted our eyes to see the lights we saw new pictures on the walls. The grade school, also, had new pictures. A new art room was located in the grade building in what had been the old third grade room. Later on a fountain that worked was placed in the assembly. Lockers were installed in the lower hall, and a new office for the principal was made out of the stage section of the auditorium or the junior high assembly. The seniors' gift to the school was a new safe and it was placed in his new office.

Mrs. Edmiston: "What is a furlong?"
Bob Powers: "It means time. Like when your mother says you can go some place, but don't stay fur long."

*** *** ***

Mr. Hester: "Dick, which month has twenty-eight days in it?"
Dick: "They all have."

Mr. Neff: "When was Rome built?"
Joe: "In the night."
Mr. Neff: "Where did you learn that?"
Joe: "Well, you said that it wasn't built in a day."

SENIOR HISTORY

After eight struggling years through the grade school we at long last became "Freshmen." Although the big assembly seemed strange at first, after our initiation by the Sophomores, we learned to take things in our stride.

During the Sophomore Year a new ruling was made by the Principal; "WE COULD NOT INITIATE THE FRESHMEN;" That nearly broke our little hearts.

Then came our Junior Year. Jo Anne Brennan was elected President and Mr. Neff, sponsor. Our Junior Play, "Papa Says No," which was given on October 21, 1947, with Mrs. Reese as our director, was a big success.

The Junior Play cast was as follows:

Bill Sykes - Clerk at the Mirama Hotel.....Dick Williamson
Joe - the bellhop.....Jim Reiter
Toots - the elevator girl.....Barbara McKinsey
Miss Luella Watts - meddlesome old maid.....Wanda Cloncs
Mrs. Hawkins - an odd woman.....Joan Rogers
Genevieve Hawkins - a "brat".....Barbara Tharp
Sallie - a waitress.....Edna Maye Lewellyn
Liz - a waitress.....Barbara Jeffries
Mr. Page - a big businessman.....Dick Zimmerman
Janet Page - his daughter.....Marilyn Brown
Jack Prescott - Janet's fiance.....Joe Prosser
Pete Carter - just out of college.....La Marr Nicholson
Mrs. Carter - Pete's mother.....Betty Hubble
The Detective.....Jerry Brennan
Prompters.....Rosemary Terry, Jo Anne Brennan

We Juniors felt honored when the home-coming queen was chosen from our class, our own President, Miss Jo Anne Brennan.

On April 23, 1948, we entertained the Seniors at the Junior and Senior Reception.

At last in September 1948 we had reached the top of the ladder. Our Senior Year was a very active one in which we were busy all year thinking up money-making schemes to aid us on our Senior Trip.

PROPHECY

Jerry Brennan with his wavy hair,
Will soon be at the head of Virginia Dare.
But he is the joy of the greenie class,
And will probably snare a cute little lass.

Jo Anne Brennan with her delicate ways,
Will care for Bill the rest of her days
She'll make him a perfect wife,
And they'll both live an ideal life.

Marilyn Brown with her classy airs,
Will always long for Dorman's cares;
But the piano is one of her joys,
And she'll use this to toll on the boys.

David Bryan, a Navy boy he will be,
Soon he'll make French girls say "We, We",
But his sweet Barbara will sit at home,
While the wide blue sea Dave will roam.

Wanda Cloncs with her high voice,
Will probably be the opera's choice.
She might be in "The Barber of Seville"
But probably will land in Vaudeville.

Who's as keen,
As Imogene,
At rolling her eyes around?
But she'll end up
With a pot of luck,
Obviously "Hollywood" bound.

Phyllis Dickerson is Ladoga's cheerleader,
Fans have said "We need her."
Very good in speech she's been,
And we know she's Bob's queen.

Everett Foster, the basketball player,
Deserves credit layer upon layer.
But no one has to have guesses,
Who will receive Betty's caresses.

Harry Griggs, the Lucky Strike,
Has many girls within his sight.
He'll spend his life looking for gold,
Until the day he's gray and old.

Betty Hubble, an intelligent girl,
Certainly went through school in a whirl.
She made many A's at a lively pace,
But she'll win Everett without a race.

Barbara Jeffries likes clothes silky and lacy,
And probably will be a model at Macy.
But with her bangs so sweet and alluring,
All the boys will need a curing.

Edna Maye, the ticket girl,
Has a beautiful, long yellow curl.
From private sources we have heard
That she likes Alfred's beard.

Laura Markey who's Oh, so shy,
Has said to Ohio, "Good-bye, Good-bye!"
We hope she'll be happy in our town,
And find a guy and settle down.

Dick McClaine, the demon of the class,
Will always drive 50 miles too fast.
Coming in three hours too late,
Just to find out he's hit Dad's gate.

Barbara McK. so sweet and charmin',
Has already begun her fame with Carmen.
But we think she'll decide to marry:
Will it be a Tom, Dick, or Harry?

The senior boys are enraged,
Because "Frances" is engaged.
But they'll calm down in a while,
After glancing at her smile.

We know so far,
That it's La Marr
For which the girls are screamin'.
We also know,
Under his chapeau,
Of Cookie he's always dreamin'.

Mary Jane
Will never refrain,
From having any fun.
But she's the lass,
In government class,
Who gets her lessons done.

Bob Powers, a jerk he is,
At making sodas he's really a whiz.
His poor bicycle, which is one of the best,
We hope someday will get a rest.

Jo Prosser, he's our little Einstein,
But Norma says "He's mine, all mine."
A little genius he will be,
Proposing to Norma upon his knee.

Jim Reiter will be President of the U.S.A.
In all the debates he'll have his say,
Jack Hester Keeps him on the run,
God pity the man who calls him son.

Joan Rogers is a big girl now,
Why not stand up and give us a bow.
Her main interest is on the farm,
Where Milford will certainly meet no harm.

Prophecy (Continued)

Dick Rogers, the bull dozer of the team,
Is always on the beam.
When we're behind on the score,
He piles up baskets more and more.

Buddy Sandusky so quiet and shy,
Someday he'll catch a girl's eye.
Then he'll swing and sway,
And be happy the rest of his day.

Rosemary Terry, the intellectual type,
Will never mess with foolish trite.
She will never marry,
But will be an efficient secretary.

Dick Williamson has charms,
In Pat's arms,
After a tqurney game.
He isn't ignored
In his Ford,
By C-ville's scheming dame.

Dick Zimmerman, a loud and boisterous boy,
When he leaves school it'll be a joy.
He is definitely a lady's man,
And will never mix with a boyish clan.

JUNIOR PLAY CAST

JUNIORS

If someone asked a high school graduate what year in school his class had the greatest financial troubles, there would be no hesitation in his response, "When we were Juniors." That was exactly what we Juniors of "49" worried over. Like every other ambitious Junior Class, the first resort was to present a play. Ours, called "Calm Yourself," was presented on October 9, 1948 with the following cast:

Fred Smithie	Larry Nicholson
Fannie Smithie	Louise Hicks
Lucie Smithie	Ruthanna Britts
Barbara Hanson	Maybeth Todd
Harold Ainsworth	Paul Clark
Jack Bird	Carl Zimmerman
Mrs. George Wonder	Betty Eldridge
Mr. George Wonder	Eugene Everhart
Hank Webster	Paul Lowery
Evans	Mary Zimmerman

Among the several money making activities of the Juniors was the making and selling of novelty yarn dolls of green and gold. Although these were not found too successful in high school, the grades made up for it. There was a unanimous vote to try selling popcorn at all home ball games which turned out to be qute profitable. On November 9, 1948, with the Seniors, we planned and held a Carnival in the old gym dividing the profits between the two classes. Under the careful guidance of our sponsor, Mr. Neff, and the rest of the class, these activities were successful and we were proud to be wearing gray and maroon sweaters representing the class of "50." Our class officers for the year were President, Paul Clark; Vice-President, Joed Clark; Secretary and Treasurer, Floyd Ball.

EASTER BUNNY
BY
LARRY NICHOLSON

Bunny comes but once a year
With baskets full of eggs,
And he travels many miles
On four white stubby legs.

He travels to the rich and poor
To all colors and creeds,
With Easter baskets by the score
Carrying on his good deeds.

When all is put away with care
And night departs from day,
Bunny would like to be there,
To hear what children say.

And now that all is happy and gay,
And no one sheds a tear,
Bunny would like to say-
Good-bye until next year.

Jerry Boling heads our list
And we are sure he would insist
That Bobby Brown is quite a clown.
There's Irene Cline and what a line
As Wardie says, "She's mine, all mine."
In the daytime Londell Craig chews his gum,
But at home he does nothing but play rum.
Betty Davis the president of our class
Is a very lucky little lass.
Kathryn Denny sixth in row,
Is still looking for a beau.
Bill Gerald who likes a girl
Runs to her with arms unfurled.
Jim Harris, our one and only,
During basketball season was never lonely.

Next in our class is Thelma June Hart,
Along came cupid and hit her with his dart.
Joyce Lawton is not a snob
Especially when she's with Sam Bob.
Shelby Norton came from Kentucky
With all the girls he's very lucky.
Maxine Oliver has her own desires
To be a housewife and build the fires.
There's Laura Pitzer and I'm sure you'll agree,
Her one and only is Loree.
Nellie Sandusky, our cheer leading gal,
To every one she is quite a pal,
Patty and Carl have departed but
Since Bill O. came along she isn't broken hearted.

David Simmons lives on a farm,
When it comes to the girls he turns on his charm.
Helen Taylor with a dimple in her chin
Can't make up her mind whether it will be Curt, Brad, or Jim.
Norma Todd always has a smile
And if you will notice, her clothes are right in style.
Last but not least is our friend Mary
Her ambition is to help Larry operate a dairy.

THE CLASS OF "52"

The class of "52" are now Freshmen
The best in the land.
We will now tell you about these people
Who are as sharp as a steeple.

Wilbert, Carl, and Harley, who act the age of ten,
Get sent out of class, never to come back again.
Morton and Junior fuss over the time
Until they hear the buzzer chime.

Eugene, who has just moved to this town,
Is bashful as a little clown.
But Glen, who is moving away
Is bashful, we would not say.

Tommy and Gerald, though this may hurt,
May each be called "one big flirt."
Wallace though he has class
Is smart as apple "sass."

Frankie, the ping-pong player,
May grow up to be a mayor.
Betty Jo and Barbara, who are fourteen,
Are very nice to be seen.

Betty Lou who can sing
Would like to warble like a bird on the wing.
Dorothy and Sandy strut around,
Yet they never make a sound.

Betty Hart and Anita are very kind
And both possess a very quick mind.
Irma and Marie, the tallest of the class,
Do their work and hope to pass.

Jane and Sue are the best of friends
May this never end.
Now you know every lad and lass
Of the Freshman Class.

The First Class in the Junior High,
The seventh, as you know,
When first they came to high school,
They didn't know where to go.

But 'twasn't long before they found,
The way to get about,
And now they go from room to room,
A going in and out.

Now if you'll just be patient,
We'll get done, you'll see
The time will fly, and speed right by,
And seniors we will be.

And some day when we grow up,
And get as old as you,
We'll surely try to do something
That will help the world and you.

The Student Council of 1948-49, consisting of students from Junior and Senior High held its first meeting on September 23rd in the laboratory. At this meeting the officers for the year were elected. They are as follows: President, Betty Hubble; Vice-President, Dick Zimmerman; Secretary and Treasurer, Ruthanna Britts; and Sponsor, Mr. Swinney.

The purpose of the Student Council is to provide entertainment for the students, to work out special problems that arise to the advantage of all, and to work as the self-governing body of the school. As the self-governing body the council acts as a court to try all cases of misdemeanors concerning the students.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY

The Informal Initiation was held at the Ladoga High School, October 6th, 6:30 P.M. preceded by a wiener roast which was attended by both old and new members. Following the wiener roast the incoming members were blindfolded and led through the vicinity of Ladoga at which time they were made to do various stunts and compelled to eat a mixed combination of unappetizing food.

The Formal Initiation was held October 10th on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Christian Church. The new members were initiated by a candlelight service.

The officers of the year 1948-49 were as follows: President, Rosemary Terry; Vice-President, Wanda Cloncs; Secretary, Laura Pitzer; Treasurer, Barbara Pace; and Reporter, Betty Davis. They elected as their new sponsor Mrs. Jo Franklin.

The Society held its annual Christmas Party Monday, December 20th, at the home of Ruthanna Britts. Gifts were brought and shared by everyone.

As their first project this year the Sunshine Society girls sold Christmas cards, which proved to be successful. Last year they sent a CARE package to France and received a letter of gratitude from a mother. They are planning to send another this year.

LATIN CLUB IN '49

The Latin Club had only five members in the year 1948-49. A meeting was held on the third Thursday of each school month. The officers were as follows: President, Maybeth Todd; Vice-President, Paul Clark; Secretary, Ruthanna Britts; Program, Betty Eldridge.

The outstanding event of the Latin Club program was a Io Saturnalia Feast held on December 12, 1948. The five members dressed in the Roman style and were served a Roman dinner by the Latin I Class.

There are 82 F. H. A. Chapters in Indiana with 2619 members. The motto of Future Homemakers of America, "Toward New Horizons," expresses the purpose of the organization--learning to live better today in order that the lives of those of our families may be better tomorrow. The colors of the organization are red and white, the flower is the red rose, and the emblem is a house upheld by two hands, the hands of a boy and girl, signifying that the houses of the future are in the hands of youth.

LIBRARY

The school year of '48-'49 brought to the libraries of both grade and high school a supply of much needed new books. These books are both fictional and informative. In accord-with the state recommendation, approximately one dollar per pupil was spent by the town-ship on library books. This addition has permitted the library to remove many obsolete textbooks from the shelves and fill the space with up to date materials. The obsolete books will either be sold to a book purchasing company or stored in case of future need.

EDA HARRISON

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

HISTORY

The Eda Harrison Chapter of the Ladoga High School National Honor Society was organized March 1, 1948, by Mr. Swinney, Principal of Ladoga High School. The society was so named because of the long service which Mrs. Harrison had rendered to Ladoga High School. The qualified students were voted on by the faculty on the points of Service, Leadership, Character, and Scholarship in which one negative vote would disqualify any student for membership. To be qualified the student must have a "B" average and have been enrolled in Ladoga High School for one semester. After the qualified students have been voted in by the faculty they are formally initiated. The 1948 Honor Society members were initiated by officers of the Crawfordsville National Honor Society. The 1949 members were initiated October 27, 1948, by members of the Ladoga Honor Society. Later they were invited to WFMU to repeat the initiation over the air. There are now nineteen members.

• ACTIVITIES

The Honor Society sponsored the taking of individual pictures at the beginning of the 1948-49 school year. In November, they placed a pencil machine in the old gymnasium for both the grade school and the high school. Then in February they sponsored a Valentine Post Office on Valentine Day. A student could send any person in the school building a valentine for a small fee. Some special deliveries included singing telegrams delivered by air mail and valentines by special delivery or pony express.

1948-49 SECOND SEMESTER INITIATION

The members of the Honor Society held impressive initiation services for the students who were eligible for membership at the end of the first semester of the 1948-49 school year. The ceremony was given before an attentive student body on Friday, February 18th. The following students became new members of the Honor Society: Richard Rogers, Barbara Jeffries, Edna Mae Lewellyn, Jim Reiter, Thelma June Hart, Dave Bryan, Phyllis Dickerson, Jo Anne Brennan, Barbara McKinsey, and Joe Prosser.

JUNIOR HONOR SOCIETY

The Eda Harrison Chapter of the National Honor Society of the Ladoga High School is sponsoring a Junior Honor Society in the seventh, eighth, and ninth grades to be called the Harmon Rogers Chapter. This chapter is honoring Mr. Rogers for his long service as a teacher in the Ladoga Schools. Membership in the Junior Honor Society shall be based on Scholarship, School Citizenship, Service, Leadership, and Character. To be eligible for membership in the Ladoga Junior High Junior Honor Society, the student must have attended at least one semester in the Ladoga Junior High School, and maintained a "B" average. The first initiation will be conducted sometime this semester.

ATHLETIC ACTIVITIES

Coach Harold Hester, better known as "Jack", started the basketball season with six Seniors back on the varsity, three Juniors, and a Sophomore. After selecting Jim Reiter as Student Manager, "Jack" was ready to start the season. Along about the middle of the schedule the Athletic Association bought some new green and gold warm-up jackets and long socks to match. Later they bought some new pants to match the jackets. They also bought a new clock and a jumping board for the gymnasium. While in the process of getting things the boys added the County Tournament Cup to the trophy case. They also had a very good seasonal record, winning fifteen games and losing three. The games were as follows:

LADOGA HANDS DEFEAT TO THE LINDEN BULLDOGS IN TOURNEY

The Canners, receiving the said hardest draw in the county tournament, came through with flying colors. After defeating Waynestown by a score of 43 to 34 they proceeded to trample the New Market Flyers by a score of 30 to 27. Later, on Saturday afternoon the Canners prevailed in the tournament by crushing the Hornets of Waveland with a score of 34 to 29. Finally the Canners were ready to meet Linden, the team winning the bottom half of the draw. So on January 15th, ten boys dressed in gleaming white suits trimmed in bright green marched on the floor to represent the Ladoga High School. Spirit was high among the students from Ladoga who were witnessing the game. The Canners set the game off to a good start and kept the score leaning to their side most of the game. When the gun sounded the end of the game, the Canners were leading the Bulldogs by a score 44 to 31. La Marr Nicholson proceeded to cut down one of the nets while Joe Prosser cut down the other. Then Mr. John Ward, County Superintendent, presented the ball to the Captain of the Bulldogs, Don White. Following that La Marr Nicholson and Everett Foster, Co-captains of the Canners, was presented with the trophy which was brought home and placed in the trophy case with the other county trophy won in '47.
